

CORNELL UNIVERSITY

COMMENCEMENT

OF THE

ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY-SIXTH
GRADUATING CLASS

MAY 25, 2024

SCHOELLKOPF FIELD
ITHACA, NEW YORK

GREETINGS TO THE CLASS OF 2024

Dear graduates,

Four years ago, the entering members of the undergraduate Class of 2024 arrived at Cornell in a moment unlike any we had known before: a moment that required of all of us ingenuity, resourcefulness, and commitment. Together with your fellow students, you rose magnificently to the challenge—taking responsibility for yourselves, for each other, and for the community that had become your own.

It is a special pleasure to be gathered here in Schoellkopf Field with the remarkable Class of 2024, and to celebrate together the undergraduate, graduate, and professional degrees that you receive today. Whatever your field or course of study, whatever path you take from here, each of you can look back with pride and satisfaction at the years of hard work, dedication, and growth that brought you to today.

Cornell will always be a part of you, just as you will always be a part of Cornell.

Congratulations!
